

Methamphetamine 101 Pre & Post-Test

Take this test both before and after viewing the learning module. Your facilitator will provide an answer key.

1. Far more men than women use methamphetamine:

TRUE

FALSE
2. Methamphetamine use is limited to rural areas and has not yet impacted large cities:

TRUE

FALSE
3. Methamphetamine manufacture often utilizes the following ingredients:
  - a. Red Phosphorus
  - b. Ammonia
  - c. Ephedrine
  - d. Bleach
  - e. All of the above
4. Methamphetamine is roughly equivalent in cost per dose to cocaine

TRUE

FALSE
5. Amphetamines, including methamphetamine are more widely abused worldwide than cocaine or heroin:

TRUE

FALSE
6. Historically, heroin use is known to increase greatly in the aftermath of a methamphetamine epidemic:

TRUE

FALSE

7. The scope of methamphetamine use is limited to blue-collar Caucasians
- TRUE
- FALSE
8. Methamphetamine use is associated with a higher risk of HIV/AIDS infection:
- TRUE
- FALSE
9. Methamphetamine can only be consumed through smoking or injection:
- TRUE
- FALSE
10. All methamphetamine is made from the same substances:
- TRUE
- FALSE
11. Methamphetamine users typically use in a binge pattern rather than on a regular basis
- TRUE
- FALSE
12. Methamphetamine use is known to lead to psychosis
- TRUE
- FALSE
13. Methamphetamine use can cause serious medical ailments in the following areas:
- a. Cardiovascular
  - b. Pulmonary
  - c. Central nervous system
  - d. All of the above

14. Methamphetamine increases the amount of _____ in the brain:
- a. Dopamine
  - b. Serotonin
  - c. Testosterone
  - d. Pheromones
  - e. All of the above
15. Methamphetamine quickly dissipates from the brain after use
- TRUE
- FALSE
16. Methamphetamine primarily affects an area of the brain called the:
- a. Limbic system
  - b. Pre-frontal cortex
  - c. Stereo vertebrae
  - d. All of the above
17. Methamphetamine damage to the brain is completely irreversible:
- TRUE
- FALSE
18. The following can act as triggers for methamphetamine abusers:
- a. Familiar streets
  - b. Friends
  - c. Sexual activity
  - d. Alcohol
  - e. All of the above
19. The simple thought of methamphetamine for an abuser does not have create any physical affects:
- TRUE
- FALSE

20. Severe addiction to a substance is strictly a function of personal choice and is not biologically based:

TRUE

FALSE